

BLEEDING SCARS

A SHORT FILM BY RAUL WALDER

© by Raul Walder

WHAT IF WHAT STOPS YOU
FROM BEING WITH THE PERSON
YOU LOVE THE MOST
IN THIS LIFE WAS ACTUALLY HOW CLOSE
YOU ARE TO THEM?

SYNOPSIS

A passionate and heated encounter between two secret lovers opens old wounds and brings back nightmares from their past.

CHARACTERS

Soledad

20s. Latina. To the outside world, Sol seems to have the perfect life- she's young and beautiful, enjoys remarkable success in her career as an artist, and has a stable relationship. But if you look at her close enough, her eyes will reveal a very different reality. The truth is that Sol lost her spark a long time ago. She's been painting other people's feelings and suffering a very abusive relationship in silence. Living in a country that isn't where she was born, she has no real friends; and her only true love, lives miles away with another woman and they haven't talked in years... until tonight.

CHARACTERS

Loro

20s, Latino. A young, struggling artist. Loro is a guy that speaks more with his eyes than with his words. He lives a way more bohemian life than Soledad, not necessarily by choice but by lack of financial stability and any sort of success in his art. His relationships last as little as his jobs, and the worst part is that it doesn't seem to make a difference in Loro's life anymore. He's been living like a castaway who has lost his north and lets the tides take him wherever he can survive. There's only one woman in this world that would make him feel alive again... and he's seeing her tonight.

MOOD BOARD

